

Welcome to TaylorWorld™.

We are experts in the RPG's, Dungeons and Dragons, Pathfinder and Starfinder. Our website is <https://taylorworld.one> and our contact email is ptaylor@taylorworld.one. We sell Rule Books, Dice, Maps and Adventure paths, as well as our own in house written adventure paths and books, and other related accessories.

Our In-House written books, you can order in a variety of different digital formats including epub and pdf.

We have both a retail store and our website. In our retail store you will be able to buy a selection of what we sell and order items directly from us, as well as in store be able to hire space so you can play your RPG's on premises for a fee, as well as other things like food and drinks and other things to complement your game.

We also do taster sessions and other kind of gaming events at the Bailiffs Tap in Banbury, where you can come and get reequented with the RPG's you love and remember.

Pathfinder and 'Dungeons and Dragons' are traditional D20 based, mediavel setting RPG's. Starfinder is equally a D20 based RPG, however as its based in the future it has significant differences, including a variety of different charecter races, which include the Android, and a verietiy of different charecter classes, which include the Technomancer. Starfinder also includes things like Laser Pistols and Star Ships.
