

TaylorWorld Rpg's

We at TaylorWorld, are a group of enthusiastic gamers who mostly play table top role playing games like Dungeons and Dragons, as well as interest in other games like Chess and Magic: the gathering.

We, depending on the interest, would like to host games sessions at The Apothecary tap, on Church Lane in Banbury.

So if you have interest in joining us for it please email us at ptaylor@taylorworld.one or yossarian76543@yahoo.co.uk, or show your interest in The Apothecary Tap or visit our Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/brobostigon>.
